THE DETAILS

(aka the stuff you actually want to know)

BOOKING YOUR CREW

What kind of group booking do I need?

It depends on the size of your group and how you'd like the rooms to be booked and paid for. We offer several options, from courtesy and confirmed room blocks to corporate groups and Total Takeovers.

Not sure which one fits? That's our job. Tell us what you have in mind and we'll point you in the right direction.

How large can my group be?

With 47 rooms between The Grove Hotel and The Grove Motel, we can accommodate everything from a handful of rooms to a pretty sizeable crew. How many people we can sleep depends on room types, dates and who's bunking with who.

Can we take over the entire property?

You sure can. A Total Takeover gives your group all the guest rooms at one property, with the booking managed and paid on one master account.

It's a popular option for weddings, celebrations and groups who really want to make The Grove their own for the stay.

Do you offer group discounts?

Our rates are dynamic and vary based on dates, demand and room type, so we don't typically apply an additional group discount.

What a Group Block does give you is a selection of rooms held specifically for your group, giving your guests first dibs before those rooms return to public availability.

How long will you hold our rooms?

That depends on the type of Group Block. Your specific release date will be confirmed when your block is set up.

Any rooms not booked by the release date are returned to public availability and may then be booked at the current available rate.

For current deposits, release dates, cancellation terms and booking requirements, please see our Group Booking Policies at TheGrove.Rocks.

ROOMS, SPACES + THE FUN STUFF

Is there a two-night minimum?

Sometimes. Minimum stays may apply on weekends, holidays and other high-demand dates.

Any minimum-stay requirement will be confirmed when we review your group dates and availability.

Can guests choose their own rooms?

Within a Group Block, guests can choose from the room types allocated to the group, subject to availability. Specific room numbers are generally assigned closer to arrival.

And because every Grove room has a little personality of its own, choosing is half the fun.

Do you have somewhere for our group to gather?

We do.

At The Grove Hotel, Room 3¾ is a two-storey Loft with two bathrooms and plenty of room to spread out. Some groups reserve it as a home base or hospitality suite during their stay.

At The Grove Motel, The Den is an indoor gathering space available for casual get-togethers and group gatherings. Ask us about availability and rental options.

JOE. Hot+Cold may also be available for private gatherings outside regular operating hours.

Can we bring our own food and drinks?

Guests are welcome to bring their own food into their guest rooms and designated private gathering spaces.

Alcohol is a little different. Some of our gathering spaces operate under our liquor licence, which means outside alcohol cannot be brought into those areas. Bar service options are available where applicable.

For food, coffee and gathering options, JOE. Hot+Cold can help make things easy. Ask us about our current Grove Gathering Menu.

Can you help us make the stay a little more special?

Absolutely. Whether it's food and drinks, a gathering space or recommendations for things to see and do while you're here, tell us what you're planning.

We know our little corner of Essex County pretty well.

ARRIVALS + THE PRACTICAL STUFF

What time is check-in and check-out?

Standard check-in begins at 4 PM and check-out is 11 AM.

If your plans require an earlier arrival, let us know in advance. Early check-in may be available for an additional fee when arranged ahead of time, but it is always subject to availability.

We have an early wedding or event. What do we do?

Plan around our standard 4 PM check-in when making your arrangements.

If you need access to your room earlier, talk to us ahead of time and we can let you know what options may be available. Early access is subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed.

Is parking available?

Yes, complimentary parking is available at both The Grove Hotel and The Grove Motel.

If you're arriving with buses, oversized vehicles or have other special parking requirements, let us know ahead of time so we can determine what we can accommodate.

How do we get around?

In Kingsville, taxis and local transportation providers are available. Transportation options around Colchester are more limited, so groups should plan ahead.

We're happy to recommend local providers. You'll make arrangements directly with them, but we can help point you in the right direction.

What about noise?

Fun is encouraged. Keeping the neighbours awake is not.

Quiet hours begin at 11 PM, and we ask groups to be mindful of other guests. If you're planning a gathering, talk to us about the spaces best suited for it.

Can we bring our dogs?

We have designated pup-friendly rooms at both properties. Our current Pup Pass and pet policies apply, so please let us know when booking if a four-legged member of the crew is coming along.

MONEY, CHANGES + THE FINE PRINT

How do payments work?

It depends on how your group is booked.

Some Group Blocks allow guests to reserve and pay for their own rooms, while other arrangements are managed and paid by the group organizer or company.

We'll confirm exactly how your booking will work before anything is finalized.

What if our plans change?

We know plans change. What can be changed or cancelled, and when, depends on the type of Group Booking and how close you are to arrival.

The important part: reach out as soon as you know something has changed.

Where can I find the cancellation, deposit and release policies?
Right here:

THEGROVE.ROCKS/GROUP-BLOCK-POLICY

Our online Group Booking Policies are the source for current cancellation terms, deposits, release dates, payment requirements and other booking conditions.

Because policies occasionally change, the terms applicable to your specific Group Booking will also be confirmed when your booking is established.

How do we get started?

Easy.

Tell us a little about your group, your dates and what you have in mind. Our team will review availability and get back to you with the best booking option and next steps.
